

GI FILM FESTIVAL

GIFF 2017 AT A GLANCE

- The 11th Annual GI Film Festival will include 56 film screenings covering every genre, every branch of service and every American conflict from World War I through the Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.
- The 2017 GIFF film line-up includes both narrative films and documentaries varying in length from under ten minutes to over two hours.
- The 2017 GIFF film line-up includes films from six countries, including the United States, Canada, the U.K., Israel, Australia, and Brazil.
- In addition to film offerings, the GI Film Festival will also include music, comedy, parties, celebrity appearances, and awards.
- Scheduled guests include: Actors Tom Berenger, Judd Nelson, Kevin Durand, Linda Powell, and Jamie Kaler; musician Ayla Brown; mentalist Jim Karol; Representatives Phil Roe, Tim Walz and Jack Bergman, and the Honorable David Shulkin (Secretary of the VA).
- The GI Film Festival will launch on May 24th with a Congressional Reception and Presentation entitled, “Veteran Health: A New Hope.”
- The GI Film Festival will also, for the first time, include a “Pitchfest,” where filmmakers will pitch their best film ideas to a jury of industry professionals.
- A brief schedule follows: May 24 (night)-Congressional Reception; May 25 (day) - Film Premieres; May 25 (night) -International Night; May 26 (day) - Pitchfest & Film Premieres; May 26 (night) - Warrior Appreciation Night; May 27 (day) - Film Premieres; May 27 (night) - Cinematic Salute Variety Show; May 28 (day) - Film Premieres; May 28 (night) - Closing Film, Awards and Toast
- Ticket prices range from $15 for a matinee event to $375 for an “Executive Producer” pass.
- For a full schedule of events, visit www.gifilmfestival.com.

MAY 24-28, 2017, WASHINGTON, DC, WWW.GIFILMFESTIVAL.COM